

Corporate trust veteran Johanna Kennelly, vice president at UMB Bank, has transferred to UMB's Austin office from St. Louis. The transfer provides the Austin office with additional corporate trust resources as the demand for the service increases. In this role, Johanna will serve as a senior relationship manager while administering a variety of complex municipal bond and business escrow accounts. She will also work to find efficiencies with data reporting and will mentor junior relationship managers. Prior to joining UMB in 2018, Kennelly served as a team manager and senior fiduciary administrator at Wells Fargo Bank and team manager at BNY Mellon.

In addition to having more than 30 years of industry experience, Johanna is also a certified corporate trust specialist through the American Bankers Association and received a corporate trust master certification through Corporate Trust Insights.
